The Passing of Our Holy Father, Pope Francis

As we mourn the death of Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, we will pray the rosary every Monday at 6:30pm at St. Mark until a new pope is elected. We pray for Pope Francis' soul, and for the future of the Catholic Church as a new successor to St. Peter is elected. May the Holy Spirit be with the Council of Cardinals during the conclave.

Divine Mercy Sunday

In a series of revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, our Lord called for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Today, we know that feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by Pope St. John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

The Lord expressed His will with regard to this feast in His very first revelation to St. Faustina. The most comprehensive revelation can be found in her Diary entry 699:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy.

ANUNCIOS PARROQUIALES

Domingo de la Divina Misericordia

En una serie de revelaciones a Santa María Faustina Kowalska en la década de 1930, nuestro Señor dispuso que se celebrara una festividad especial el domingo después de Pascua. Hoy conocemos esa festividad como el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, nombrado por el Papa San Juan Pablo II en la canonización de Santa Faustina el 30 de abril de 2000.

El Señor expresó su voluntad con respecto a esta festividad en su primera revelación a Santa Faustina. La revelación más completa se encuentra en la entrada 699 de su Diario:

Hija mía, anuncia al mundo entero mi inconcebible misericordia. Deseo que la Fiesta de la Misericordia sea un refugio y un amparo para todas las almas, y especialmente para los pobres pecadores. En ese día se abren las profundidades de mi tierna misericordia. Derramo un océano de gracias sobre las almas que se acercan a la fuente de mi misericordia. El alma que se confiese y reciba la Sagrada Comunión obtendrá el perdón completo de los pecados y las penas. Ese día se abren todas las compuertas divinas por donde fluyen las gracias. Que ninguna alma tema acercarse a Mí, aunque sus pecados sean como la grana. Mi misericordia es tan grande que ninguna mente, ni humana ni angélica, podrá comprenderla por toda la eternidad. Todo lo que existe proviene de lo más profundo de mi ternura. Toda alma, en su relación conmigo, contemplará mi amor y mi misericordia por toda la eternidad. La Fiesta de la Misericordia surgió de lo más profundo de mi ternura. Es mi deseo que se celebre solemnemente el primer domingo después de Pascua. La humanidad no tendrá paz hasta que recurra a la Fuente de mi misericordia.
